DETAILED ACTION

Information Disclosure Statement

The listing of references in the Search Report is not considered to be an information disclosure statement (IDS) complying with 37 CFR 1.98. 37 CFR 1.98(a)(2) requires a legible copy of: (1) each foreign patent; (2) each publication or that portion which caused it to be listed; (3) for each cited pending U.S. application, the application specification including claims, and any drawing of the application, or that portion of the application which caused it to be listed including any claims directed to that portion, unless the cited pending U.S. application is stored in the Image File Wrapper (IFW) system; and (4) all other information, or that portion which caused it to be listed. In addition, each IDS must include a list of all patents, publications, applications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office (see 37 CFR 1.98(a)(1) and (b)), and MPEP § 609.04(a), subsection I. states, "the list ... must be submitted on a separate paper." Therefore, the references cited in the Search Report have not been considered. Applicant is advised that the date of submission of any item of information or any missing element(s) will be the date of submission for purposes of determining compliance with the requirements based on the time of filing the IDS, including all "statement" requirements of 37 CFR 1.97(e). See MPEP § 609.05(a).

The listing of references in the specification is not a proper information disclosure statement. 37 CFR 1.98(b) requires a list of all patents, publications, or other information submitted for consideration by the Office, and MPEP § 609.04(a) states, "the list may not be incorporated into the specification but must be submitted in a separate paper." Therefore, unless the references have been cited by the examiner on form PTO-892, they have not been considered.

Specification

The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: The references to claims 1 and 5 found on pages 1 and 4 of the specification is improper and must be changed so as to delete references to the claims by number because the claims depend upon the specification for explanation and the specification cannot be used to explicitly limit claim construction or incorporate subject matter from the claims.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 5-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

A broad range or limitation together with a narrow range or limitation that falls within the broad range or limitation (in the same claim) is considered indefinite, since the resulting claim does not clearly set forth the metes and bounds of the patent protection desired. See MPEP § 2173.05(c). Note the explanation given by the Board of Patent Appeals and Interferences in Ex parte Wu, 10 USPQ2d 2031, 2033 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1989), as to where broad language is followed by "such as" and then narrow language. The Board stated that this can render a claim indefinite by raising a question or doubt as to whether the feature introduced by such language is

Art Unit: 3677

(a) merely exemplary of the remainder of the claim, and therefore not required, or (b) a required feature of the claims. Note also, for example, the decisions of Ex parte Steigewald, 131 USPQ 74 (Bd. App. 1961); Ex parte Hall, 83 USPQ 38 (Bd. App. 1948); and Ex parte Hasche, 86 USPQ 481 (Bd. App. 1949). In the present instance, claim 5 recites the broad recitation “an article” (line 2), and the claim also recites “e.g. a garment, a shoe, a bag or the like” (line 3) which is the narrower statement of the range/limitation.

Claims 6 and 7 are of unclear scope because claim 1 recites in detail the subject matter of the tapes and claims 6 and 7 must narrow the scope of claim 1. However, claims 6 and 7 seem to only recite the subcombination of the zipper slide and leave out the positive recitation of the tapes and the fastening elements and their relationships as recited in claim 1. The claims are of unclear scope.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Morin (US 3129479) or Oda (US 455722).

Morin (figures 1-4) teaches slider structure with a recess 24 fully capable of receiving a portion of the zipper tape. The claim is of unclear scope, the claims are not seen as drawn to the combination with the tapes and fastening elements, and any difference is seen as obvious over Morin.

Oda (figures 1, 4, 5) teaches slider structure with a recess 44, 46, 47 fully capable of receiving a portion of the zipper tape. The claim is of unclear scope, the claims are not seen as drawn to the combination with the tapes and fastening elements, and any difference is seen as obvious over Oda.

Claim 7 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Morin (US 3129479) or Oda (US 455722).

Morin (figures 1-4) teaches slider structure with a recess 24 fully capable of receiving a portion of the zipper tape. The claim is of unclear scope, the claims are not seen as drawn to the combination with the tapes and fastening elements, and any difference is seen as obvious over Morin.

Oda (figures 1, 4, 5) teaches slider structure with a recess 44, 46, 47 fully capable of receiving a portion of the zipper tape. The claim is of unclear scope, the claims are not seen as drawn to the combination with the tapes and fastening elements, and any difference is seen as obvious over Oda.

The difference is that the dimensions of the recess are unstated. It would have been obvious to utilize the claimed ranges as they conform to the size of the tape and the combination is not claimed.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-4 are allowed.

Claim 5 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, 2nd paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Conclusion

The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. The patents of Norvell (US 5444898), Kawahara (US 2004/0045140), Sundback (US 2077350) and Marinsky (US 2325332) teach pertinent zipper structure.
